Activity Name: - Introduction to Anapan Vipassana Meditation

Day and Date: - 6/12/2021 Time: - 3 p.m. -5. p.m.

Organized for (student class/staff): - All NSS students and staff of college

Coordinator Names: Dr. Rahul Padalkar and Mr. Pradeep Sonawane

No of Participants: 52 including 3 Faculty members

Description of Activity (Detail, Attendance, etc):

All staff and students gathered in the classroom of college for the Anapana sati Vipassana Meditation the guest explains the procedure for a mindfulness practice that focuses on the breath. The term "Anapanasati" comes from the Pali language, where "ana" means in-breath, "apana" means out-breath, and "sati" means mindfulness or awareness. The guest asks the students to close their eyes and bring their attention to the breath and observe the natural flow of your breath as it enters and exits their nostrils. Focus attention on the sensation of the breath, whether it's coolness, warmth, or movement. Through sustained practice, you may develop insight into the impermanent and ever-changing nature of your thoughts, emotions, and bodily sensations. This insight can lead to a deeper understanding of the nature of reality and your own mind. All the staff along with students of NSS Committee participated the session.

Outcome: Students as well as staff actively participated in Anapan Vipassana Meditation. They also interact and listen the whole session to motivate themselves.

Organized for (student class/staff): - All NSS students and staff

Coordinator Names: Dr. Rahul Padalkar and Mr. Pradeep Sonawane

No of Participants: 51 students and 30 Faculty members

Description of Activity (Detail, Attendance, etc):

By gathering on the college campus at 8:05 AM, our NSS student unit showed dedication and enthusiasm for the occasion. Giving flowers and showing appreciation to the women in our college, including both the teaching and non-teaching faculty, as well as the girl students, is a wonderful way to acknowledge their efforts and presence. The students organized the program for all the ladies faculty members. They also offer gifts to all faculties as token of gratitude.

The gesture of gifting a bouquet to your college Principal, Dr. Ashwini Madgulkar, demonstrates respect and recognition for her leadership and contribution to the institution. It's heartening to see that the celebration included both symbolic gestures and tangible acts of appreciation. The drive was guided Program Officer Dr. Rahul R. Padalkar and co-ordinator Mr. Pradeep P. Sonwane.
