Mechanism for Anti-Ragging Cell

The Anti-Ragging Committee of the college functions in accordance with the guidelines of the University Grants Commission (UGC) and Pharmacy Council of India (PCI) to ensure a safe and ragging-free academic environment.

1. Constitution of Committee:

The committee is chaired by the Principal and includes senior faculty members, non-teaching staff, parents' representatives, student representatives (both senior and junior), and local community members.

2. Functions and Responsibilities:

- To ensure strict compliance with anti-ragging regulations prescribed by UGC and PCI.
- To monitor and guide the Anti-Ragging Squad in conducting regular checks in hostels, classrooms, and campus premises.
- To review any complaints of ragging and recommend appropriate disciplinary or legal action based on inquiry findings.
- To organize awareness, orientation, and counseling sessions for students at the beginning of every academic year.

3. Complaint and Redressal Mechanism:

- Students can report incidents directly to committee members, through written applications, email (aissmscop.antiraggingcell@gmail.com), or via the online anti-ragging portal (www.antiragging.in).
- Upon receipt of a complaint, the committee promptly initiates an inquiry within 24-48 hours and records statements from concerned parties.
- The findings are documented, and necessary action is taken in accordance with institutional and statutory norms.

4. Preventive and Monitoring Measures:

- Anti-ragging notices, posters, and helpline numbers are displayed prominently across the campus and hostels.
- Regular interaction with first-year students to identify early signs of discomfort or misconduct.
- Periodic meetings of the committee are conducted, and compliance reports are submitted to the affiliating university and regulatory bodies.
